

Hoboken Police arrest resident wanted on attempted murder charges

Hoboken Public Safety Director Ken Ferrante and Hoboken Police Chief Steven Aguiar announce today, the arrest of 23-year-old Keshon Crandell of Hoboken on attempted murder charges in connection with a Father's Day shooting incident.

On Sunday, June 18, 2023, at approximately 2:15 p.m. uniform patrol officers, under the supervision of Sgt. Adam Colon responded to the 500 block of Jackson St., on a report of shots fired. After an initial search and investigation, the incident was corroborated and turned over to the Hoboken Police Department's Investigation Bureau, under the supervision of Det. Sgt. William Collins and Det. Lt. Richard Torres. No one was injured in the shooting, and no property was damaged.

A 2-day investigation led by Detectives Tyler Soto, Michael Losurdo, and Fabian Quinones identified Crandell as the suspect, and a warrant was executed for his arrest. Today, Tuesday, June 20, at approximately 12:20 p.m., Crandell turned himself into Hoboken Police Headquarters without incident. He was charged with the following:

- Criminal attempted murder
- Possession of a weapon for unlawful purposes
- Unlawful possession of a weapon
- Causing or risking widespread injury

Crandell was also processed on an aggravated assault summons for his involvement in a street fight in Hoboken on May 7, 2023. Crandell was transferred to the Hudson County Correctional Facility.

"The Hoboken Police Department considers the safety of our residents its top priority," said Public Safety Director Kenneth Ferrante, "and we do not tolerate any type of violence in our City."

“I commend the entire team who worked tirelessly on this case, bringing the suspect to justice swiftly and safely,” said Police Chief Steven Aguiar. “This thorough investigation and quick arrest reaffirms the Hoboken Police Department’s dedication to all the residents of Hoboken.”

Hoboken Police Officers involved in this investigation and arrest include PO Jessica Arebalo, PO Christopher Barral, PO Matthew Bonanno, PO Marco Grossman, PO Frank Lombardo, and PO Jessica Pizanie.

The charges are merely accusations, and the defendant is presumed innocent unless, and until, proven guilty in a court of law.
