Hoboken Police Arrest Blotter
8/17/23 - 8/24/23

1. On August 17, 2023, at approximately 5:20 p.m., Police Officers Daniel Grossi and Rose Kanan responded to Church Square Park, 400 Park Ave., on reports of a man acting erratically. Police Officer Shelby Seickendick was already on scene and advised the other officers that the man was shouting in the bathroom. Officers recognized him as 23-year-old Sebastian Iniguez of Hoboken and knew him to be the suspect in a theft on August 11, 2023, during which he cut the lock to the front gate of a home on the 700 block of Park Avenue and stole children's toy cars and a box of food valuing a total of approximately $260. Officer Jessica Pizanie took that report, was able to identify the suspect on surveillance video, and issued a warrant for theft and criminal mischief. Iniguez was also found to have a warrant from March of 2023 for loitering to obtain CDS. He was brought to Hoboken Police Headquarters where he was processed and then remanded to the Hudson County Correctional Facility.

2. On August 20, 2023, at approximately 5:25 a.m., Police Officers Joshua Campoverde and Nicholas Protopapadakis responded to the intersection of Second and River Streets, where Sgt. Christopher LaBruno and Police Officer Arron Font were at a car that was in park, but the driver was sleeping with his foot on the gas pedal. The driver, later identified as 27-year-old Miguel Almazan of Bloomingdale, was given a standardized field sobriety test, after which he was placed under arrest. He was charged with driving while intoxicated, reckless driving, and improper parking. As per John's Law, he was released into the custody of a responsible party.

3. On August 22, 2023, at approximately 11 a.m., Police Officers Joshua Campoverde and David Chicara responded to the area of Newark and Hudson Streets on a report of a woman with a knife outside of JP's Bagels, 51 Newark St. Upon arrival, the officers observed the suspect, later identified as 62-year-old

Theresa Terry of Hoboken, and found a silver butter knife in the pocket of her backpack. Witnesses told officers that Terry and a man were both panhandling in the same location and got into a verbal argument when she brandished the knife. Sgt. Wilfredo Gomez was also on scene and located the victim nearby on Washington Street. A search incident to arrest of Terry located a clear cylindrical glass pipe and six hypodermic syringes. Terry was placed under arrest, transported to police headquarters, and charged with possession of a weapon for unlawful purposes, aggravated assault, and possession of drug paraphernalia. She was found to have outstanding warrants from the Hudson County Sheriff's Office and Union City. Terry was transported to the Huson County Correctional Facility.

4. On August 22, 2023, at approximately 11:16 a.m., Police Officers Frank Lombardo and Elias Colon responded to the 300 block of Observer Highway, where Police Officer Marvin DeJesus saw a man who matched the description of a man wanted in Jersey City. Sgt. Wilfredo Gomez and Police Officer Tyrone Huggins arrived on scene to assist. The man, identified as 28-year-old William Vigil of North Bergen, was found to have an outstanding warrant out of Jersey City and was transported to Hoboken Police Headquarters, before being brought to Jersey City Municipal Court.

5. On August 23, 2023, at approximately 12:45 p.m., Lt. David Olivera was working an outside employment job in the area of Ninth Street and Castle Point Terrace when he observed a car driving the wrong way down Ninth Street. He advised the driver, later identified as 54-year-old Robert Spada of Kearny, to pull over. Spada appeared to have glassy eyes and slurred speech. Police Officer Christopher Hatfield arrived on scene to conduct a field sobriety test, after which Spada was charged with driving under the influence, reckless driving, and driving the wrong way on a one-way street. As per John's Law, he was later released into the custody of a responsible party.

6. On August 23, 2023, at approximately 10:30 a.m., Sgt. Wilfredo Gomez, Sgt. Adam Colon, and Police Officers Joshua Campoverde and David Chicara arrested 18-year-old Reynaldo Peguero of Hoboken at his home for burglary and theft. Following an investigation, Peguero was found to have stolen a laptop from a car that was parked in a garage on the 700 block of Jackson Street on August 13,

2023. During the investigation, Detective Bret Globke viewed surveillance video from the date and location of the theft and identified the actor as Peguero. He was transported to Hoboken Police Headquarters and remanded to the Hudson County Correctional Facility.

7. On August 24, 2023, at approximately 9:20 a.m., Police Officers Tyrone Huggins, Cynthia Rivera, and Joshua Campoverde responded to the area of First and Washington Streets on reports of a man who had assaulted a parking utility officer. Upon arrival, they observed a man who fit the suspect description who was highly agitated and yelling. The man, later identified as 39-year-old Lamar Woodward of Hoboken, continued to yell and shout as officers tried to speak with him. Sgt. Francis McCourt and Detective Vito Gigante arrived to assist. The victim confirmed Woodward was in fact the man who he had a confrontation with. Officer Jason Montalvo took his statement in which he said Woodward yelled at and attempted to hit him from behind. It was learned that Woodward had two active warrants out of Hoboken and one from the Hudson County Superior Court. He was taken to Hoboken Police Headquarters and charged with disorderly conduct. While processing Woodward, he became irate and began to yank his arm which was handcuffed to the bench causing himself to bleed from his wrist. Once he calmed down, he was taken to Hoboken University Medical Center by the Hoboken Volunteer Ambulance Corps. He was cleared and then transported to the Hudson County Correctional Facility.
