Hoboken Police arrest juveniles in connection with November shooting

Hoboken, NJ – The Hoboken Police Department arrested two juveniles in connection with a November 8, 2023, shooting on the 300 block of Jackson Street last week. No one was injured in the incident.

The initial reports of shots fired came in at approximately 11:58 p.m. Officers responded, and an initial canvas of the area located three shell casings. A short time later, Jersey City Police observed four males matching the description of the suspects and arrested all four on weapons charges, including the two juveniles, both of whom were found to have weapons in their possession.

After more than two months of further investigation led by Det. Bret Globke, the juveniles involved were charged last week, with attempted homicide, conspiracy to commit homicide, possession of a weapon for an unlawful purpose, unlawful possession of a weapon, and possession of a weapon by a minor. Both turned themselves in on January 25, 2024, were processed on the charges, and were released into the custody of their guardians pending a juvenile court date.

“These arrests point to the determination of our investigators, to bring those who break the law to justice,” said Chief Steven Aguiar. “I am proud of the time and effort all of our Detectives and officers put into this, and every incident they investigate.”

Members of the Hoboken Police Department who were part of the initial response, investigation, and arrests include: Lieutenant Richard Torres, Sergeants William Collins, James Barbro, Anthony Russo, Saverio Binetti, Luke Zezotarski, Dennis Figueroa, and Francis McCourt, Detectives Globke, Tyler Soto, and Christine Collins, and Police Officers Harold Milne, Anthony Azzoline, Aaron Font, Marc Lombardi, Matthew Bonanno, Daniel Barron, Enrico Gnassi, Ricky Trupner, and Teddy Santiago.

The Hoboken Police Department would like to thank the Jersey City Police Department, the New Jersey Transit Police Department, Hudson County Prosecutor's Office, and the Bayonne Police Department for their cooperation and assistance in this investigation. The charges and allegations are merely accusations, and the defendants are presumed innocent until proven guilty.
