

Hoboken Police Arrest Blotter

04/17/25 - 4/23/25

1. On April 16, 2025, at approximately 11:05 p.m. Police Officers Brian Kim, John Lawton, Mark Mooreman, and Ahmed Makshat responded to the 700 block of Jackson Street on reports of a person sleeping in the hallway of a residential building. Officers found an individual, later identified as 33-year-old Jarell Lee of Hoboken, sitting in the stairwell on the 11th floor. It was discovered he did not live in the building, was escorted out, and released with a summons for defiant trespassing.
2. On April 17, 2025, at approximately 7:30 a.m., Police Officer Trevor Thomas was on patrol at Church Square Park, 400 Garden St., when he observed an individual, he identified as 44-year-old Damont Dyer of Hoboken. Dyer was pacing, talking to himself, and acting fidgety. It was discovered Dyer had an active warrant out of Hoboken for possession of CDS with intent to use, and he was placed under arrest. He was transported to Hoboken Police Headquarters, processed, and ultimately transported to the Hudson County Correctional Facility.
3. On April 18, 2025, at approximately 9:25 a.m., Police Officers Aaron Font and Anthony Rutkowski responded to 7-11, 422 Washington St., on reports of a woman inside the store being disruptive. The woman had been told earlier in the morning that she was not allowed to be inside. When officers arrived, the woman refused to give her full name and gave a false address. She was told if she didn't provide the proper information she would be arrested. She continued to refuse requests for information and was placed under arrest. The woman, later identified as 28-year-old Dina Elbanna of Hoboken, threatened to punch the officers. She was transported to Hoboken Police Headquarters and processed on charges of obstruction of the administration of the law and disorderly conduct. She was released from custody with a summons. At approximately 11:25 a.m., Officer Font responded to Starbucks, 51 Newark St., where Elbanna was seen acting disorderly and was reported to have taken items without paying. Officer Rutkowski arrived on the scene and an on-scene investigation revealed Elbanna had taken a food item worth $4 and ate it without paying. No formal complaints were signed, but based on her behavior she was transported to a local hospital. During transport she pulled away from one of the officers, damaging his watch and she was charged with criminal mischief. Elbanna was ultimately released from custody at the hospital.

3. On April 18, 2025, at approximately 2:30 p.m., Police Officer Nicholas Losurdo processed the arrest of 38-year-old Alysha Noel of Jersey City, who was brought to Hoboken Police Headquarters by Union City Police. Noel had two failure to appear warrants in Hoboken. She was processed and transported to the Hudson County Correctional Facility.

4. On April 18, 2025, at approximately 9:45 p.m., Police Officer Marvin DeJesus was driving on Washington Street when he saw a vehicle drive through a red light at the intersection with Fourth Street. He pulled the vehicle over. Police Officer Alexander Miller arrived on scene to assist. The driver, later identified as 25-year-old Luis Martinez-Sanchez of New Milford, had trouble providing his documents, and officers smelled the odor of an alcoholic beverage emanating from the vehicle. A standard field sobriety test was performed, after which Martinez-Sanchez was placed under arrest for driving while intoxicated and transported to Hoboken Police Headquarters for processing. He was issued a summons for driving while intoxicated, failure to observe traffic signals, and careless driving. As per John's Law, he was released into the custody of a responsible party.

6. On April 20, 2025, at approximately 5:05 a.m., Police Officers Zackary Guido and Anish Bhisey observed a vehicle parked on Hudson Street, without a rear license plate. The vehicle pulled out of the spot, and officers stopped it. The driver, later identified as 21-year-old Richard Vaquero of Long Island, NY, appeared to have glassy and bloodshot eyes. Sgt. Daniel Grossi and Police Officers Cynthia Rivera and Christopher Soto arrived on the scene to assist. Vaquero became argumentative and was asked to step out of the car. Sgt. Grossi smelled the odor of an alcoholic beverage emanating from the vehicle. A standardized field sobriety test was performed, during which Vaquero became increasingly argumentative. It was determined he was impaired and was placed under arrest for driving while intoxicated. He was walked into Hoboken Police Headquarters and issued a summons for driving while intoxicated and reckless driving. As per John's Law, Vaquero was released into the custody of a responsible party.

7. On April 21, 2025, at approximately 3:50 a.m., Police Officers Carmen Benitez and Brandon Cappelluti responded to Hoboken University Medical Center, 308 Willow Ave., on reports of a patient having suspected CDS cocaine in his possession. Upon arrival, officers were given a baggie with a white powdered substance and a long silver rod with a scoop end, suspected of being used to ingest the suspected CDS. Both items were found in the possession of the male patient, later identified as 35-year-old Dheeraj Ayyagari of Suwanee, GA. He was placed under arrest and charged on a summons with possession of CDS cocaine and possession of drug paraphernalia. He was given a copy of the summons, provided a court date, and released into the care of a local hospital.

8. On April 21, 2025, at approximately 9 p.m., Police Officers Nicholas Protopapadakis and Anthony Azzoline were patrolling the area of Newark and Washington Streets when they observed an individual they identified as 30-year-old Angel Landa-Vasquez of Hoboken, and believed he had an active arrest warrant out of Hoboken. They located Landa-Vasquez inside the New Jersey Transit Terminal and approached him. Det. Jesse Castellano and Police Officer Joshua Campoverde arrived on the scene to assist. The original warrant for defiant trespassing was confirmed, and Landa-Vasquez was placed under arrest. He was transported to Hoboken Police Headquarters for processing and ultimately taken to the Hudson County Correctional Facility.

9. On April 22, 2025, at approximately 1 a.m., Police Officers Jaydan Gonzalez and Anish Bhisey were on patrol of Washington Street when they observed a someone sleeping in the vestibule of Blue Foundry Bank, 334 Washington St. They knocked on the window to wake up the man, later identified as 49-year-old Paulo Carhuanini, of Hoboken, and he exited the bank. He was advised he couldn't sleep in any vestibule, issued a summons for defiant trespassing, and released from custody on the scene.

10. On April 22, 2025, at approximately 8:45 a.m., Police Officer Arturo Gonzalez responded to CVS, 59 Washington St., on reports of a shoplifting. An on-scene investigation revealed a man had left the store without paying for multiple items worth a total of approximately $11.67. Police Officers Harry Montalvo and Daniel Barron located a man who fit the description of the actor on the 300 block of Bloomfield Street. When the officers approached him, the man, later identified as 24-year-old Jarvis Sims of Hoboken, tried to walk away twice. He was confirmed to be the actor in the shoplifting and was arrested. He was transported to Hoboken Police Headquarters and processed on charges of shoplifting and obstruction the administration of the law. It was discovered Sims had a warrant out of Jersey City for the initial offense of robbery with a knife. He was processed on the warrant and ultimately transported to the Hudson County Correctional Facility.

11. On April 22, 2025, at approximately 7:05 p.m., Police Officers Ahmed Makshat and David Smentkowski were flagged down by a man outside of 404 Vape and Smoke Shop, 404 Washington St., who told officers the store had just been robbed. An on-scene investigation revealed a man came into the store, grabbed a pack of vape juice worth approximately $20, and tried to hide it in his bag. When an employee tried to take the product back, the individual, later identified as 45-year-old Lamont Robinson of Belleville, pushed him, causing a minor laceration on the employee's head. Robinson ran from the store and fled the scene with a woman, later identified as 42-year-old Tiffany Malone of Jersey City. Police Officer Rose Kanan observed

Robinson and Malone on the 200 block of Fourth Street. Sgt. Roary Miller, Sgt. Jason Falco, and Police Officer Donovan Ortiz arrived on the scene to assist. During arrest, Robinson attempted to resist. He was detained and transported to an area hospital. Robinson was charged with robbery, aggravated assault, and resisting arrest. He was ultimately transported to the Hudson County Correctional Facility. During Robinson's arrest Malone began to scream and yell, causing a disturbance. She was placed under arrest for disorderly conduct and at first gave officers a fake name and was additionally charged with hindering apprehension. She was transported to Hoboken Police Headquarters, and it was discovered she had two warrants from Hoboken; one for shoplifting and the other for simple assault. During processing Malone kicked an officer, pulled down her own pants, and urinated on a bench. She was additionally charged with lewdness and aggravated assault. She refused to be fingerprinted and was further charged with refusing to be fingerprinted. Malone was ultimately transported to the Hudson County Correctional Facility.

12. On April 23, 2025, at approximately 1:40 a.m., Sgt. Michael Losurdo and Police Officers Frank Lombardo and Dylan Allegretta responded to the 100 block of Washington Street, on reports of an unknown person on the fire escape. Officers located four individuals behind the building, later identified as 19-year-old Omar Kebbe of Paramus, 19-year-old Adein McMaus of Midlothian, VA, 19-year-old Bohdi McCormack of Candler, NC, and 18-year-old Francis Murray of Florham Park. Sgt. Daniel Grossi and Police Officers Jayden Gonzalez, Brandon Cappellutti, Jairo De La Cruz, and Keven De La Cruz arrived on the scene to assist. All four individuals were issued a summons for defiant trespassing and released from the scene.

13. On April 23, 2025, at approximately 2:35 a.m., Police Officers Jaydan Gonzalez and Brandon Cappelluti responded to the 300 block of Garden Street on reports of someone trying to open doors to residential buildings. When they arrived, the officers observed a man who fit the description of the actor and stopped him. He was identified as 30-year-old Jesus Ortega of Hoboken and was placed under arrest. He was transported to Hoboken Police Headquarters where he was charged with defiant trespassing, processed, and released on a summons with a court date.

13. On April 23, 2025, at approximately 9:40 p.m., Police Officers John Lawton and Rose Kanan were near the intersection of Monroe and Sixth Streets, when they observed an individual, they could identify as 46-year-old David Cummings of Hoboken, and believed he had an outstanding warrant for his arrest. The warrant for possession of CDS, receiving stolen property, and obstruction of the administration was confirmed. Sgt. Roary Miller and Sgt. Harold Milne stopped Cummings on the 500 block of Eighth Street and placed him under arrest. He was transported to Hoboken Police Headquarters for processing and then taken to the Hudson County Correctional Facility.