1. On May 1, 2025, at approximately 12:40 a.m., Police Officers Ricky Truppner and Valentino Salgado, were conducting a sweep of a Hoboken Housing Authority (HHA) building on the 300 block of Marshall Drive when they saw two men exiting the building. They stopped the men, later identified as 40-year-old Luis Chapotin of Rochester, NY and 35-year-old Adam Nasser of Bloomfield, who could not give a valid reason for being in the building. Both were arrested for defiant trespassing. A search incident to arrest of Nasser revealed him to be in possession of a pill bottle with 30 prescription tablets that were prescribed to someone else, and he was additionally charged with possession of prescription legend drugs. Chapotin was in possession of a black folding knife as well as a wet cigarette and wrappers, both often used to absorb PCP CDS. He was additionally charged with possession of CDS, possession of drug paraphernalia, and certain persons not to have a weapon. They were transported to Hoboken Police Headquarters, processed on all charges, and ultimately taken to the Hudson County Correctional Facility.

2. On May 1, 2025, Police Officer Jennifer Lee responded to Hoboken Police Headquarters to process 29-year-old Brendon Smiley of East Orange, on charges of forgery and theft, in connection to reports of an employee of Napolis, 113 Clinton St., altering and then cashing a check meant for the restaurant. A follow-up investigation by Police Officers Chelsea Tamborra and Kyle Seper identified Smiley as the actor in this case. After being processed on all charges, Smiley was released on a summons.

3. On May 2, 2025, at approximately 4:15 a.m., Police Officers Trevor Thomas and Carmen Benitez noticed a vehicle blocking a fire hydrant on the 100 block of Fifth Street. When they approached, they found the driver, later identified as 44-year-old Anthony Salernitano of East Rutherford, sleeping. They woke him up and through the window, officers could see a clear cylindrical glass pipe with a burnt end. Salernitano was asked to step out of the car, and he was placed under arrest. A search incident to arrest of the vehicle revealed two crack pipes and a push rod. Salernitano was charged with possession of drug paraphernalia. He was also given a ticket for blocking a fire hydrant. He was transported to Hoboken Police Headquarters, and it was discovered he had a warrant from the Rutherford Police Department. He was processed on the Hoboken charges and then transported to East Rutherford to be processed on the active warrant.

4. On May 2, 2025, at approximately 8:20 a.m., Police Officers Nasir Willey and Christopher Barral responded to Pier A Park, on reports of a man yelling at other people in the area. When they got there, witnesses pointed out the individual, later identified as 25-year-old Shreesh Pun of Hoboken, and told officers Pun had become aggressive with other people. Pun was found to have an open warrant out of Hoboken for disorderly conduct. He was placed under arrest and transported to Hoboken Police Headquarters for processing. Later, during transport to the Hudson County Correctional Facility, Pun became erratic, spit on the back seat glass, and kicked the window bars. He continued to kick and spit, despite the officers' orders to stop doing so. He became aggressive with officers and began yelling at them, using vulgar language. It was later discovered that Pun had broken a door handle in the back seat. He was additionally charged with criminal mischief and ultimately transported to the Hudson County Correctional Facility.

5. On May 2, 2025, at approximately 7:10 p.m., Police Officer Donovan Ortiz was on patrol on the 400 block of Fourth Street when he observed a man he could identify as 50-year-old Phillip Realpe of Jersey City, and knew Realpe had two active warrants for shoplifting in Hoboken. The warrants were confirmed, and Realpe was placed under arrest. He was transported to Hoboken Police Headquarters and was processed on both warrants, before ultimately being transported to the Hudson County Correctional Facility.

6. On May 2, 2025, at approximately 9:30 p.m., Police Officers Jairo De La Cruz and Shyenna Vega responded to Shop Rite, 900 Madison St., on reports of a shoplifting where the actor was in custody of store security. An on-scene investigation revealed the actor, identified as 21-year-old Jabari Thompson of Gardena, CA, paid for only some of the items in his possession, and attempted to leave with a total of $12.99 worth of merchandise he did not scan or pay for. Thompson was placed under arrest for shopfitting and transported to Hoboken Police Headquarters. After being processed, he was released on a summons.

7. On May 2, 2025, at approximately 11:05 p.m., Police Officers Trevor Thomas and Matthew Bonanno were on patrol when they saw a vehicle fail to stop at a stop sign at the intersection of Jackson and Fourth Streets. They pulled the vehicle over and when the driver, later identified as 36-year-old Samuel Kenyon of Hoboken, rolled down his window, they detected the odor of an alcoholic beverage emanating from the car. Officers observed his speech was slurred and slow, his body was swaying, and his eyes were watery and glassy. Sgt. Harold Milne arrived on the scene to conduct a field sobriety test, after which it was determined Kenyon was unable to safely operate a vehicle and he was placed under arrest for driving while intoxicated. A search of his vehicle located two open containers of alcoholic beverages. Kenyon was transported to Hoboken Police Headquarters where he refused to provide a breath sample. He was issued summonses for driving while intoxicated, reckless driving, open/unsealed container of alcohol, refusal to submit to a breath test, driving with a suspended license, and failure to stop or yield. As per John's Law, Kenyon was released into the custody of a responsible party.

8. On May 3, 2025, at approximately 5:10 a.m., Police Officer Michael Aviles observed a vehicle strike multiple other vehicles on the 400 block of Garden Street and then leave the scene. A few moments later, Police Officer Trevor Thomas observed a vehicle that fit the description of the car observed by Officer Aviles, and noticed it had damage to the front right passenger side, which appeared to be new. He pulled the vehicle over on Observer Highway at Henderson Street. Police Officers Zackary Guido, Ronald Kibitlewski, Nicklas Valerius, and Aidan Gonzalez arrived on the scene to assist. When they approached the vehicle, officers detected the odor of an alcoholic beverage emanating from the driver, later identified as 25-year-old Jovanny Islas-Perez of Jersey City. Officers also observed multiple cans of alcoholic beverages on the back seat and floor. Islas-Perez was asked to turn off the car and step out of the vehicle, but he ignored both commands until officers turned the car off for him. When he got out of the vehicle, Islas-Perez took a couple of steps without any sense of direction, and he was placed in handcuffs. He slurred his words and had watery and glassy eyes. A field sobriety test was conducted, after which it was determined Islas-Perez was unable to operate a motor vehicle safely and he was placed under arrest for driving while intoxicated. A search of his vehicle discovered one can of an alcoholic beverage. Officers also located a handgun and ammunition in the glove compartment. Islas-Perez was transported to Hoboken Police Headquarters and charged with possession of prohibited weapons and devices, certain persons not to have weapons or ammunition, unlawful possession of weapons, and possession of weapons for unlawful purpose. He was also issued summonses for driving while intoxicated, reckless driving, driving with an open alcoholic beverage container, failure to report an accident, leaving the scene of an accident, driving without a license, and driving with a suspended registration.
