

Hoboken Police Arrest Blotter

05/08/25 - 05/14/25

1. On May 8, 2025, at approximately 6:30 a.m., Police Officers Carmen Benitez and Brandon Cappelluti responded to the 200 block of Willow Street at the request of the Hoboken Volunteer Ambulance Corps (HVAC), to assist with a woman, later identified 41-year-old Lenette Green of Jersey City. As the call for service went on Green acted disorderly and began to misuse the 9-1-1 system by calling without having an emergency. Sgt. Daniel Grossi arrived on the scene to assist. When Green made a third 9-1-1 call without having an emergency, she was placed under arrest and transported to Hoboken Police Headquarters where she was charged with false public alarm and disorderly conduct. It was discovered she had a warrant out of Newark for disorderly conduct. After being processed, Green was transported to the Hudson County Correctional Facility.

2. On May 8, 2025, at approximately 3:40 p.m., Police Officers Mario Rodriguez and Ahmed Makshat responded to ShopRite, 900 Madison Street, on reports of a shoplifting where the actor was in custody of store security. An on-scene investigation revealed an individual, later identified as 40-year-old Aristide Nzoudja of Newark, paid for some of the items in his cart, but tried to leave with eight items, totaling $71.29, that he did not pay for. Nzoudja was transported to Hoboken Police Headquarters, and it was discovered he had a warrant out of Newark. Aristide was processed and ultimately transported to the Hudson County Correctional Facility.

3. On May 8, 2025, at approximately 7:15 p.m., Police Officer Michael Chen was approached by a man, later identified as 84-year-old Bernaldo Quiros of Hoboken, at the intersection of Fifth and Monroe Streets. He was observed to be slurring his speech. Quiros began dancing in the middle of the street and the officer instructed him to stand on the sidewalk for his safety, but he became erratic and walked away. Quiros took a fighting stance and continued yelling in an incoherent manner. He started to swing his arms, took a glass bottle out of his pocket, and threw it on the ground near the officer. Quiros was arrested for disorderly conduct. Sgt. Harold Milne and Police Officer Lombardi arrived on the scene to assist. Quiros was transported to a local hospital, where he was released with a summons.

4. On May 9, 2025, at approximately 3:20 p.m., Police Officers Bianca Arroyo and Elias Colon were patrolling on Fifth Street heading toward Jackson Street, when they observed a man holding a canned margarita, walking off balance. When they pulled over to check on the well-being of the man, later identified as 41-year-old Sedrick Aiken of Bayonne, he poured the liquor out of the can and onto the hood of their patrol car. Police Officers Anthony Olivera, Arturo Gonzalez, Nasir Wiley, and Jonathon Figueroa responded to the scene to assist. Aiken was charged with criminal mischief, disorderly conduct, interference with transport, and having an open alcoholic beverage container. He was transported to a local hospital and released with a summons.

5. On May 9, 2025, at approximately 7 p.m., Police Officers Vincent Guastini and Stephen Chowanec were driving on Jackson Street when they noticed an individual on the 300 block who they could identify as 55-year-old Antonio Melendez of Hoboken and knew he had a warrant. When they called out to him, Melendez attempted to run away, but officers caught up to him. As they attempted to arrest Melendez, his arms became stiff, and he ignored commands. He was arrested and a search incident to arrest located empty needles, copper steel wool, metal rods, and a wax fold with powdery substance believed to be CDS. Melendez was transported to Hoboken Police Headquarters where the warrant for loitering was confirmed. He was additionally charged with possession of CDS, possession of drug paraphernalia, and resisting arrest. Melendez was ultimately transported to the Hudson County Correctional Facility.

6. On May 11, 2025, at approximately 1:25 a.m., Police Officers Jaydan Gonzalez and Brandon Cappelluti responded to Dear Maud, 205 First St., on reports of bouncers injuring a patron and then leaving the scene. An on-scene investigation revealed the victim was entering the establishment when he was pushed into a bouncer at the front door. The bouncers then shoved the victim onto the floor, causing a shoulder injury. He was transported to a local hospital for treatment. The two bouncers involved, identified as 24-year-old Matthew Garica of Passaic and 23-year-old Luciano Recalde of Kearny, came back to the scene. They were placed under arrest for aggravated assault. They were transported to Hoboken Police Headquarters, processed, and released with summonses and a court date.

7. On May 12, 2025, at approximately 2:50 a.m., Police Officers Zackary Guido and Trevor Thomas responded to the area of 14th Street and Sinatra Drive on reports of a group of individuals drinking, throwing bottles, and being loud before getting in a vehicle and driving away. Officers observed a vehicle that matched the description of the car involved passing their vehicle and pulling into a parking lot on the 1400 block of Park Avenue. Officers stopped the vehicle and identified the driver as 23-year-old Destiney Mathis of Newark. They observed her to have glassy eyes and smelled a strong odor of an alcoholic beverage emanating from the vehicle and her breath. A field sobriety test was performed, after which Mathis was arrested for driving while intoxicated. She was transported to Hoboken Police Headquarters where she refused to provide breath samples for testing. A search of her car located an open bottle of tequila. Mathis was issued a summons for driving while intoxicated, reckless driving, refusal to submit to breathe testing, and having an open/unsealed container of alcohol. As per John's Law, she was released into the custody of a responsible party.

8. On May 12, 2025, at approximately 12:15 p.m., Police Officer Anthony Rutkowski responded to the 200 block of Bloomfield Street on reports of a package theft. An on-scene investigation revealed a package containing approximately $484.40 of clothing had been taken the day before, and Officer Rutkowski was able to identify the actor as 62-year-old John Montalvo of Hoboken. It was discovered Montalvo had two outstanding warrants for failure to appear; one out of Hoboken and the other out of Hudson County. He was additionally charged with theft of a package from a residence. The next day, on May 13, 2025, at approximately 8:20 a.m., Sgt. James Barbro saw Montalvo in the area of First and Grand Streets. Police Officers Frank Lombardo and Teddy Santiago responded to the area, located Montalvo, and placed him under arrest. He was transported to Hoboken Police Headquarters and processed. He was later transported to the Hudson County Correctional Facility.

9. On May 13, 2024, at approximately 1:35 a.m., Police Officer Anish Bhisey and Zackary Guido were conducting a check of a Hoboken Housing Authority (HHA) building on the 600 block of Sixth Street, when they observed a man, later identified as 44-year-old William Matos of Union City, who did not live in the building. Sgt. Daniel Grossi and Police Officers David Chicara and Ronald Kibitlewski arrived on the scene to assist. It was discovered Matos had a warrant for failure to appear out of Jersey City. A search incident to arrest found a crack pipe, two wooden push rods, and copper wiring. Matos was charged with criminal trespassing and possession of drug paraphernalia. He was transported to Hoboken Police Headquarters for processing and ultimately transported to the Hudson County Correctional Facility.

10. On May 13, 2025, at approximately 9:20 a.m., Police Officer Daniel Barron responded to Hoboken Police Headquarters to process the arrest of 63-year-old Rodolfo Hung of Union City, who was brought to Hoboken by West New York Police. Hung had a failure to appear in court warrant out of Hoboken for theft. After processing, he was released from custody with a summons.

11. On May 13, 2025, at approximately, Police Officers Arturo Gonzalez, Marco Grossman, and Anthony Hochstadter responded to the 600 block of Madison Streets on reports of an individual in the process of taking a package. Officers observed a woman who fit the description of the actor, who they could identify as 51-year-old Diana Luciano of Hoboken, near the intersection of Sixth and Grand Streets, and observed her walk into Acme, 614 Clinton St. When she came out, she had a total of $36.23 worth of items, that she did not walk in with. It was determined she had shoplifted those items, and she was arrested. She was transported to an area hospital, where a search incident to arrest located a glass cylinder with a steel wool on one end, commonly used to smoke crack cocaine. Luciano was charged with shoplifting. Further investigation revealed Luciano was also responsible for a package theft reported on May 12, 2025, and she was additionally charged with theft of packages and burglary. She was ultimately transported to Hoboken Police Headquarters for processing and then taken to the Hudson County Correctional Facility.

12. On May 13, 2025, at approximately 12:10 p.m., Sgt. James Barbro and Police Officers Daniel Barron and Rose Kanan responded to ShopRite, 900 Madison St., on reports of a shoplifting where the actor was detained by store security. An on-scene investigation revealed the actor, later identified as 38-year-old David Hutchings of Jersey City, placed items worth a total of $90.43, into a bag and tried to leave without paying before being stopped by security. Hutchings was arrested for shoplifting and transported to Hoboken Police Headquarters where it was discovered he had a failure to appear warrant for shoplifting in Hoboken. Once processed, he was transported to the Hudson County Correctional Facility.

13. On May 14, 2025, at approximately 9:35 p.m., Police Officer Dylan Archilla was on patrol on the 900 block of Washington Street, when he saw a motorcycle pass another vehicle by entering the opposite lane of traffic. The officer conducted a traffic stop, and it was determined the driver, later identified as 25-year-old Ronneld Thomasramos of Jersey City, did not have a motorcycle license. It was discovered that Thomas had a failure to appear warrant for driving without a license in Hoboken. He was placed under arrest and transported to Hoboken Police Headquarters. He was released on bail and given a new court date.